CARING FOR THE ELDERLY & DISABLED

When Maria first visited 82-year-old Mrs. Johnson, the homebound widow in need was hesitant to accept help. "I've taken care of myself for a long time," she said. Maria smiled, "Then I'm just here to walk beside you." A true friendship blossomed. Maria helps her with groceries and transportation to medical appointments. She ensures her living conditions are safe & sanitary. Maria is much more than a social worker; she provides a steady arm, a warm smile, and companionship rooted in faith. "You remind me that God hasn't forgotten me," Mrs. Johnson said. Our gifts bring Christ's love to our elderly neighbors in need.
