· WHAT IS HOLY WATER ?

- Holy water is regular water that a priest has blessed with a special prayer, asking God to make it a sign of His grace and protection.
- Catholics use holy water to remind themselves of their baptism, the moment when they first became children of God and members of the Church.
- When you dip your fingers in holy water and make the Sign of the Cross entering a church, you are renewing your promise to live as a baptized Catholic.
- The Church teaches that holy water can help protect people from evil and that using it with faith brings spiritual blessings.
- Holy water appears in many important moments of Catholic life, including baptism, blessings of homes, funerals, and the Easter Vigil.
- The use of blessed water as a sacred sign goes all the way back to the Old Testament, and Jesus Himself was baptized in water, showing how God works through this simple element.

We should be mindful of the teachings of the church regarding holy water and educate our children in the proper respect for holy water and the vessels in which it is contained. It is not a time to play and splash around.

Debemos tener presente las enseñanzas de la Iglesia sobre el agua bendita y educar a nuestros hijos en el debido respeto hacia ella y los recipientes que la contienen. No es momento para jugar ni chapotear.
